L2e SOLUTIONS' TEAM MEMBER RESUME

Justin Quinn
President/CEO

Education:

University of Connecticut
M.E.M., BS Industrial Engineering

Old Dominion University,
BS Engineering Management

Experience:

15 years

Accreditations:

Certificate in Nuclear Propulsion Supervisor: Department of Energy

Justin Quinn brings over fifteen years of proven operational and engineering leadership. As an Officer in the United States Navy, he held a wide variety of leadership positions of increasing responsibility and served in Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom and Africa in support of the Global War on Terror. Throughout his professional career, he distinguished himself in the fields of academia, program management, and diplomacy. He developed, recommended, and assisted with the execution of United States Defense policies, engineering consulting, and structural projects both domestic and abroad.

As President and CEO of L2e Solutions, Justin Quinn is responsible for all aspects of the firm's strategy, team and operations. Justin leads the firm in its mission to deliver exceptional client service, reliability and quality project delivery.

Project Experience:

St. Louis Community College, St. Louis, MO

- A/E services for (3) Community College Campuses: Forest Park, Meramec and Florissant Valley. Included the renovation/replacement of existing laboratory casework and MEP renovations.

Fayetteville VA Medical Center, Fayetteville, AR

- 21,000 sf addition for New Inpatient Mental Health Building

Eglin Air Force Base, Ft. Walton Beach, FL

- 17,500 sf addition to existing CBOC, including new clinical spaces and 13,000 sf renovation to existing CBOC including Pathology lab

Jack C. Montgomery VA Medical Center, Muskogee, OK

- A/E design services for repair and stabilization of a collapsing hill on the VAMC campus and restoration of lost parking

Combined Joint Task Force Horn of Africa, Djibouti, Africa

- Master Plan and Design of Joint Operation Center